Synopsis: On December 22, 2023, officers co-responded to a report of an unresponsive 11-year-old female, Azaeliyah Pili-Ah You, at a home in Laie. HFD firefighters administered CPR and EMS paramedics transported her to a hospital where she was pronounced dead.

The Homicide Detail further investigated and conducted interviews, tested evidence and reviewed medical and school records. Autopsy findings determined that the victim's cause of death was multiple injuries from child abuse and the manner of death as homicide.

Today an Oahu Grand Jury indicted the victim's adoptive mother for Manslaughter, Endangering the Welfare of a Minor in the Second Degree and Persistent Nonsupport. A No Bail warrant was issued.

This afternoon the CID Strategic Enforcement Detail arrested Sina Pili in Kahuku on the strength of a grand jury warrant for Manslaughter, Endangering a Welfare of a Minor, and Persistent Non Support. She is being held without bail.
