Synopsis: A downtown commercial establishment reported damages in the form of spray painted graffiti to the walls of their building. Estimated damages were $2,500 and a Criminal Property Damage in the 2nd Degree case was generated.

With the use of the City and County of Honolulu's Chinatown surveillance cameras, it was determined that 3 unknown male suspects spray painted various graffiti tags on the building while a female suspect/accomplice recorded video of the incident. Through said video surveillance, investigators were able to positively identify the female suspect/accomplice.

On 11-26-24, the adult female suspect was located and placed under arrest for CPD 2nd. On 11-27-24, two of the three male suspects were located and arrested. The investigation into the final male suspect continues.

UPDATE
