Scene / Area: Punchbowl area

Time Element: 10-02-2025 / 10:15 AM

Suspect(s): Adult Male (50)

Victim(s): MaleMale

Synopsis:

Just after 10:15 a.m. today, officers responded to an incident involving a 50-year-old male at The Queen's Medical Center. The reporting person notified HPD dispatch that the male was expressing suicidal thoughts and stated that he had a firearm.

When officers arrived, the male was standing along the sidewalk of Punchbowl Street, between South Beretania Street and South Vineyard Boulevard. At approximately 10:20 a.m., as officers approached the male, he reached into his waistband area, pulled out a firearm, and pointed it at the officers. In response, the officers fired shots striking the male. The suspect was detained immediately after being subdued and was taken into The Queen's Medical Center for treatment. The male subsequently succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased. No officers were injured during this incident.

The firearm used by the male was recovered at the scene.
