Victim(s): Adult Female (31) Adult Male (42)

Synopsis: On February 15, 2026, at approximately 10:22 p.m., District 3 patrol officers responded to a domestic argument at a residence on Kohomua Street. Initial information indicated a family dispute with no weapons reported.

Upon arrival, officers observed the suspect, a 22-year-old male, crouched outside the unit near the doorway. As officers approached, the reporting person, who is in a wheelchair, opened the door. Before officers could enter, the male went into the residence, pushed the reporting person aside, and entered the kitchen.

From the doorway, officers observed the suspect armed with a kitchen knife. Officers gave verbal commands for him to drop the weapon, but he refused and advanced toward them. An officer deployed his Conducted Energy Weapon (CEW) which was ineffective despite striking the suspect. A second Officer then discharged one round from her duty pistol, striking the male in the thigh.

Officers immediately rendered first aid and the male was
